ANNEXES

ANNEX A – BID EVALUATION PROCESS

Step 1: Eligibility Check

Received bids will be first reviewed for compliance with the eligibility criteria as outlined in Sub-Section 2 (Eligibility Criteria).

Step 2: Completeness of Bid

Eligible bids will then be checked for completeness based on the submission of all required documents as listed in Sub-Section 7 (Documents to be submitted).

Step 3: Priority Consideration for Barkly

This procurement exercise is an Open National Bidding Exercise. However, priority will be given to individuals or companies residing in Barkly. Therefore:

- If one or more compliant bids are received from Barkly residents, only those bids will be evaluated in Step 4.
- If no compliant bid is received from a Barkly resident, bids from non-Barkly residents will then be considered.

Step 4: Evaluation of Financial Offer

Compliant bids will be assessed based on their proposed monthly rental price:

- Bidders must quote a monthly price equal or above MUR 8,000, exclusive of VAT.
- The Bidder who has proposed the highest monthly rental price will be selected.

Step 5: In Case of Equal Proposed Rental Prices

In the event that two or more bidders quote the same highest monthly rental price, the final selection will be based on the most competitive overall proposal, considering the following criteria:

- Proposed business concept
- Financial capability
- Relevant experience
